

RRI Games 27 Sep 2009

Team yellow balancing the a raw egg by holding the end of strings that was hooked on to the center where the egg is suspended. If the egg drop it will break and the whole process starts all over again. The team have to transport 3 eggs from bottom of the slop to the top and rest it on to a stone without it falling off.

After sucessfully balanced the 3 raw eggs, team members have to crack them and eat it raw as one of the interactor from VI is drinking it.

At the end of the games, all was happy and a group photograph was taken. You can spot President Robin, Interact Chairman Rtn Jeffery Yap and all the hardworking Rotaractors and sporting Interactors.

The team have to finished a large loaf of bread, a full packet of biscuits, a watermelon, bananas and 2 one litre drinking water.

The Pudu Rotaractors (RRI Games organiser) did not forget lunch for all participants, all had buggers, fries and soft drinks. They are such good organiser and some of the interactors are talking about next RRI Games.

President Robin Tay making sure all poses for the photos.

This is a much better photo as President Robin Tay showing of his leg and the rest confirm that it was a well organise event. Well done Pudu Rotaractors and you can do it again next year.
